Mission Shaped Space Workshops - 25th May and 1st June

Every person and every church has a Mission Shaped Space. What Yours?

Our world is changing, so how do we respond? Are there new ways of engaging and being church in the twenty first century? If so, what does it look like?

Come and explore mission and church life in current contexts.

- 25th May and 1st June - 2 different Saturday morning workshops
- 9.45am - 2pm with lunch provided (free to attend but donations welcome).
- St Ninian's Church, EH4 1 AG
- Led by Annie Naish and Oliver Brewer-Lennon.
- All are welcome, as an individual or with others from your church.

For catering purposes please book a place by contacting Annie Naish at mission@dioceseofedinburgh.org or 07800 866 494.

Christian Aid Bridge Walk

June and Anne are looking for sponsorship to walk the bridge for Christian Aid. We are walking on Saturday 11th May, this is a slightly later date as this year the walk starts Christian Aid Week. There are sponsorship forms in the church. Thank you, you have now supported us for 10 years.

Holiday Club: Forms are now out for volunteers. Would you like to volunteer to help at this Holiday Club, coordinated by the 6 churches of Portobello. 16-20 July, in the mornings. A wide range of roles to play - games, gardening, teaching, caring, baking, supporting, providing coffee, praying etc. Please do get involved. Ask Sophia for forms and return them to her!

Saturday 15th June The Big Sing At the Cathedral - would you like to sing with others, including other choirs from around the diocese, would you like to come to Evensong with the joint singers of the diocese - a day of music for musicians and non-musicians alike

Saturday 8 June at 1pm: we have a wedding in the church to which the groom's mother is unable to come because of illness. We are hoping to Skype the wedding to her, but we need someone to operate the computer etc through the service - is anyone available? Please let Sophia know. Thank you!
