

St Mark's Festival 2015

Music on a Summer Evening

Saturday 2nd May 7pm: Organ Recital
St Marks Organists Aki Ippolito and Jean Smithson

Friday 29th May 7pm: Honest Singers, The Honest Singers are made up from people who love to sing. They sing, a wide variety of songs, spiritual, African, traditional, and even pop, in harmony or "rounds".

Saturday 30th May 7pm: Edinburgh Steiner School: A selection of songs for summer from Class 5, family and friends.

Wednesday 3rd June 7pm: Portobello High School Portobello High School's cello ensemble, directed by Mrs Aimée Horvath, will play music from Bach to 21st Century pop songs. The Spurtle Ceilidh Band, also from Portobello High, will play a mix of traditional music with their own individual twist.

Friday 5th June 7.30pm: Dalkeith & Monktonhall Colliery Brass Band ... NB
Concert at 7.30pm! The Dalkeith and Monktonhall Colliery Brass Band play an evening of music for all ages and tastes .... Latin, classical, rock, pop, traditional and modern. One of the UK's top brass bands!

All concerts at £5 (£20 for all five concerts). Under 16s free.
Available on the door or from the church after Easter.

Other Events

Saturday 16th
May: 2-4pm
Afternoon Tea ....
Tea, scones,
homebaking at the church

Sunday 7th June:
5.30pm Songs of Praise ... nominate and come and sing
favourite hymns

St Mark's Church

287 Portobello High Street
www.stmarksportobello.org

0131 629 1219

Scottish Charity No: 017137;

