St Mark's Art Exhibition 2022

- Entry for exhibits is free. It is open to all artists in Portobello and Musselburgh.
- It is the exhibitor's responsibility to insure their work outside their own home. Although all due care will be taken, St Mark's cannot accept any responsibility for any damage or loss.
- Paintings, artistic photography, wood turning, silver craft, glasswork, ceramics, patchwork and much more can be offered for sale or display.
- All items for display must be suitably framed and strung ready for display. Those not presented suitably cannot be displayed. Clip frames will not be accepted. If in doubt, please ask.
- Only pottery, silver jewellery, sculpture or glassware can be accepted for table display or sale. If in doubt, please ask
- The final date for notification of entry and details of exhibits is Sunday 28 August 2022 at 5pm. It greatly helps with planning and advertising to know what is being exhibited as early as possible.
- Delivery date for exhibits is Wednesday 7 September 2022 before 5pm to enable planning and cataloguing. The enclosed form must be completed and presented with the exhibits when delivered to church.
- Collection of exhibits is Monday 12 September 12-5pm or Wednesday 14 September 9-12, although alternative arrangements may be possible in special circumstances and by prior arrangement. Any items which are unclaimed (unless agreed beforehand) by 30 September will be disposed of as the church sees fit.
- 20% of all sales will be retained by St Mark's. The difference will be paid to you after completion of financial records for the show.
- We reserve the right not to display any item that is not presented suitably, or if it is inappropriate, if there is insufficient space or in the interests of balance.
- Homemade Greetings Cards can be sold, with the same commission.
